Vital connections.
Helping you fulfill your call to ministry.

Elim Fellowship Associate Status

If you are a minister with a very strong connection with Elim Fellowship and a deep desire to share the Elim experience but, for one reason or another, cannot become an Elim credential-holder, consider Elim's Associate Status.

Many Christian ministers are searching for a strong social connection and would like to have access to Elim's members-only website, receive invitations to Elim events, and receive resources and discounts that would normally be open only to Elim credential holders.

Out of a desire to remove the obstacles that separate us, and open the door to share the Elim experience with as many ministers as possible, we have established Elim Fellowship's "Associate" status.

This status provides:

- Invitations to all Elim events and free registration on our training seminars
- Monthly General Resource emails and annual Resources Pack
- Full access to our member's-only website, which includes many resources and communication tools along with ministry job opportunities

Elim Fellowship's "Associate" status is designed to include those ministers that share our heart but not our credential—to draw circles of inclusion, rather than lines that separate. Our expectation is that the ministerial organization, of which an Associate is a part, will be responsible for pastoral care. We simply want to open the door to relationships and helpful resources.

3 Simple Qualifications:

- You should maintain good standing with the organization that has given you ministerial credentials.
- You need to affirm your agreement with our Mission and Doctrinal statements annually.
- You pay an annual renewal fee of $50 along with an annual $360 Associate fee. Payments can be made at once or in a monthly format.

How do I become an Associate?

Simply fill out the application form on our website (www.elimfellowship.org) and send in the appropriate fees. If you have any questions, contact our Executive Secretary at executive@elimfellowship.org
